

Curriculum vitae Benno Müller-Hill

Born March 5, 1933 in Freiburg, Germany

Academic Education

- bis 1959 Studies of Chemistry, Albert-Ludwigs-University Freiburg, Germany
- 1959 - 1962 PhD thesis in Biochemistry at the Albert-Ludwigs-University Freiburg, Supervisor Prof. Dr. Kurt Wallenfels; PhD thesis: On the structure and mechanism of action of alcohol dehydrogenase from bakers yeast and of β -galactosidase from E.coli ML 309

Professional Career after Graduation

- 1963 – 1964 Postdoctoral Fellow, Indiana University Bloomington, USA
- 1965 - 1968 Research Fellow, Harvard University, Cambridge, USA
- 1968 - 1998 Professor of Genetics, Institute of Genetics, Cologne University, Germany
- 1998 - present Professor emeritus, Institute of Genetics, Cologne University, Germany

Prizes and Honors

- 1986 Gay-Lussac-Humboldt-Prize
- 1989 Medal of the College de France, Paris, France
- 2000 Dr. h.c., Israel Institute of Technology (Technion), Haifa

Honorary Memberships

- 1976 European Molecular Biology Organization (EMBO)
- 1989 Academia Europaea
- 1990 The Human Genome Organisation (HUGO)
- 1991 Honorary Fellow, Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- 2005 German Genetics Society